No member of congress deserves more thanks from his constituents for his fidelity, ability, and industry than does Mr. Cannon, of this State. To him the country is mainly indebted for the defeat of the minidy voted by the senate to the several lines of Brazilian steamships a subsidy that had no possible justification or pretext other than to take money from the treasury to enable one man to carry on his private business.

APPAIRS are not going as smooth in New Orleans as we were promised they should when the Democratic Administration came in. PARIS, Ita., June 21.-John Burns was hanged here at I o'clock this afternoon, for the murder of Elijah Birdwell, on the 20th of October last.— Burns was a reckless, hardened man, and met his death with a coolness amounting to bravado. He was pronounced dead seven minutes after the fatal drop.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21,-The Potter Investigation Committee met today, Mr. Merrison presiding in the abence of Mr. Potter.

Captain Thomas A. Jenks, of New Orleans, was examined by Representative Reed. He testified that in 1876 his residence was in East Feliciana parish, La. He held the position of United States deputy Marshal; was appointed by Marshal Pitkin. The Republicans in the parish had told the witness that they were afraid to register their names on account of, intimidation. At this point Mr. McMahon inquired if Jenks was the witness called at the instance of Mr. Sherman; Mr.

Reed replied that he was. Whereupon Mr. McMahon said that he objected to any questions being put relating to affairs in East Feliciana parish, excepting what muterially affected Mr. Sherman, and that the question whether or not Mr. Sherman wrote the so-called "Sherman letter" should be decided before the witness gave his testimony regarding the intimidation which was experienced by the Ropublicans in A long discussion ensued, the Republicans taking the ground that they had been endeavoring since the organication of the committee to ascertain the proposed scope of investigation, during which Mr. Morrison stated that Mr. Shorman had requested that 100 witness es be subported by the sub-committee who are to visit Lousians, the mombers of which have not yet been formally announced to testify with reference to the intimidation that existed, and that reliase to bear the restatements of witnesses regarding the intimidation in Libat State.

Anderson requested the witness to make an affidavit that he (Anderson) was intoxicated when he signed that paper, but the witness refused. He was perfectly sober. Bowsher went quietly to the scaffold; refused to permit any religious ceremonies; had nothing to say, and maintained a defiant attitude to the last. His neck was broken at the fall of the srap. He never confossed his crime.

GENEVA, Ill., June 21.- The most deplorable death, in the history of our village, occurred here yesterday, namely, the suicide of Miss Nellie Wilson, eldest daughter of Judge Isaac G. Wilson, of Chicago. Through the death of her mother a few months since, and general poor health, a deep melancholy gained absolute control over her, which estublished, beyond a doubt, a disordered mind. The weapon used was a pistol, with which she inflicted two wounds, both in the temple. The fatal shooting was done at 4 p. m., at the residence of her uncle, Charles Patten, Esq. who, with wife, was absent from home attending the death-bed of Major W. N. Davis, another unclo, at Au Sable, Ill. Miss Wilson lived until 12 p. m., being unconscious during the interval. She left a note the substance of which asanswer any questions pertaining to the sumed the entire responsibility of the act, and expressed a desire to relieve that the doctor now sells it under a post her family and friends of a burden which, to her clouded vision, she thought ahe had become.

> SAN FRANCISCO, June 21,-The ount in the city is not yet complete, but will give the Kearneyites a larger plurality than anticipated, probably near four thousand. Non-Partisan majorities and the workingmen will elect all the delegates at large except ten, which are on both non-partisan and republican or democratic tickets. It is probable the convention will be nearly equally divided.

AFFAIRS are not going as smooth in New Orleans as we were promised they should when the Democratic Adminis tration came in. Carpet-bag corruption, it appears, has a worthy and lineal descendant in the Democratic Government installed by the commission of March and April last year. A judgement of $20,300 obtained by the state against the Canal Bank, worth every cent of its face, has been compromised for $20,299.15 in warrants and 85 cents in cash. These warrants were purchased on the street for 15 or 17 cents on the dollar,---say $4,000 for the lot.---Semebody has made the difference between this sum and the amount paid by the bank, popularly estimated at $8,-500. It is not known who the guilty officials are. The payment was made on an opinion rendered by the assistant attorney general and approved by the auditor.

A COWARDLY ASSAULT. -- On Tuesday night, as Mr. Phil. Clark was on his way home from Unele Johnny Campbell's house he was met by two men who attacked him. They struck the old man two blows on the head with the corner by Thomps. Smith's house. Mr. Clark was in a bewildered condition and asked the boys to take him home. Arriving at the house Dr. Porter was sent for and an examination disclosed Mr. Clark's injuries. The old man is confined to his bed and is suffering great pain. He does not know who his assailants were. What object they could have in beating an old man is not explainable, for Mr. Clark is one of the quietest of men .- Clinton Public.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—The Potter Investigation Committee met today, Mr. Metrison presiding in the ab-

He held the position of nited States deputy Marshal; was appointed by Marshal Pitkin. The Republicans in the parish had told the witess that they were afraid to register their sames on account of, intimidation.

At this point Mr. McMahon inquired if Jenka was the witness called at the instance of Mr. Sherman; Mr. Reed replied that he was.

Whereupon Mr. McMahon said that he objected to any questions being put relating to affairs in East Feliciana parsh, excepting what muterially affected Mr. Sherman, and that the question whether or not Mr. Sherman wrote the so-called "Sherman letter" should be decided before the witness gave his testimony regarding the intimidation which was experienced by the Republicans in East Feliciana parish. A long discussion ensued, the Republicens taking the ground that they had been endeavoring since the organication of the committee to ascertain the proposed scope of investigation, during which Mr. Morrison stated that Mr. reading of their death warrants and the Shorman had requested that 100 witnesses be subprensed by the sub-committee who are to visit Lousians, the members of which have not yet been formally announced, to testify with reference to the intimidation that existed, and that nodice dangled in the air with but it was his (Morrison's) intention, at the proper time, to ask the committee to notes, regarding the intimidation in that State.

The witness produced a letter written by James E. Anderson, requesting that he forward to Anderson the original list given by the witness to General Augur, of nineteen murders committed in East Feliciana parish.

Anderson told the witness that he was attacked by the Democrats, and afterwards said he thought that his clerk, I' C. Butler, had something to do with it The witness said the Anderson protest in the Sherman report which Anderson heretofore testified was not the document that he had signed and claiming that it had been altered, was the doenment that Anderson signed and swore to before Judge Campbell.

Anderson requested the witness to make an affidavit that he (Anderson) was intoxicated when he signed that paper, but the witness refused. He was perfectly sober. tienkya, Ill., June 21.- The most deplorable death, in the history of our village, occurred here yesterday, namely, the suicide of Miss Nellie Wilson, eldest daughter of Judge Isaac G. Wilson, of Chicago. Through the death of her mother a few months since, and general poor health a deep melancholy gained absolute control over her, which established, beyond a doubt, a disordered mind. The weapon used was a pistol, with which she inflicted two wounds, both in the temple. The fatal shooting was done at 4 p. m., at the resi dence of her uncle, Charles Patten, Esq. who, with wife, was absent from home attending the death bed of Major W. The unparalleled popularity of his family medicines, and the amount increase in their sale, attests in arguments stronger than words of their purity and efficiency. If the blood be impoverished, the liver sluggish, or there be tumors, blotches and pimples, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will effect a speedy and perfect cure. If the bowels be constipated use Dr Pierre's Pleasant Purgative Pellets .--

Debilitated females, suffering with those peculiar dragging down sensutions and weaknesses, will find Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a safe and certain remedy. Prompt relief and a permanent cure have so universally followed its use, that the doctor now sells it under a positive guarantee.

THE MILLIEUX CONCERT.

From the first announcement that Miss Dollie Millikin intended to make her debut, the curiosity of the musical public has been on the que eree. Her teacher, Mr C A Foster, of our city, and intimate friends, having for a few years claimed that she was gifted with more lhan usual talent, so when she made her bow for the first time before a public nudience, at the opera house last night, the musical public were eager to hear her, she was viewed, she came off with flying street to the Wabash Railway, which was colors All present decided that she was on motion, placed on file as nearly a perfect performer as it was possible for one of her age to be. There is a fascination almost irresistible in her March and April, 1878, as correct style of execution, and she excels in that essential expression that comes wholly from the soul, and which the composer from lack of means to express, hands over to the discretion and intelligence of the executant, and Miss Millikin, in the ren dition, of every piece, reminded her audience of what Shelley called 'pro fuse strains of unpremeditated art which produce the same indescribable excite ment and infatuation as the author felt when composing " Miss Dollie is a lady of more than ordinary height, and of slen der figure. She puts on no airs, but goes straight to the piano, alts down without an instant delay-without music tefore her, without tossing the head or flourish ing the hands. The position of her hands and arms is beyond criticism. She has wonderful strongth in her wrists, and is able to play octaves with the wrist move ment without apparent effort and with remarkable force. Her fingers are the projer length and have sufficient strength to bring out the forte tones of the Chick ring Concert Grand with great cifec:

Very many plane players let their notes run logether and nux them up like a set entific cock setumbles eggs when a partion of the eggs are too manuad to fry on one side. Not so with Mins Millikin her toucs are full and beautifully rounded and mellow every note being their and more distinct than any player we ever he ard. Her starento pantagos are delisbut is why people should get their bread | end with a very singular evenues while herigato runs are no I as markel for the reven flow and exact rendering

Her selections last evening were from Chopin, Laszt, Mendulaschu and Gota chalk, but we think that Chopin's slyle is better adapted to her genius. What she may be some after spending the time other rartista have done none but a prophet an foreste

From the first announcement that Miss Dollie Millikin intended to make her debut, the curiosity of the musical public has been on the que size. Her teather, Mr C A Foster, of our city, and intimate friends, having for a few years claimed that she was gifted with more than usual talent, so when she made her bow for the first time before a public au dience, at the opera house last night, the musical public were eager to hear her, and in spite of the critical eye with which she was viewed, she came off with flying street to the Wabash Railway, which was colors All present decided that she was is nearly a perfect performer as it was possible for one of her age to be There s a fascination almost irresistible in her style of execution, and she excels in that essential expression that comes wholly from the soul, and which the composer from lack of means to express, hands over to the discretion and intelligence of the executant, and Miss Millikin, in the ren dition of every piece, reminded her audience of what Shelley called 'pio fuse strains of unpremeditated art which produce the same indescribable excite ment and infatuation as the author felt when composing " Miss Dollie is a lady of more than ordinary height, and of sicn der figure She puts on no airs but goes straight to the piano, sits down without an instant delay-without music lefore her, without tossing the head or flourish ing the hands. The position of her hands and neur is beyond criticism. She has wonderful strength in her wrists, and is able to play octaves with the wrist move ment without apparent offert and with remarkable force. Her fingers are the proper length and have sufficient strength to bring out the forte tones of the Chick

Not so with Miss Millikin her tones are full and beautifully rounded and mellow every note being clear and more distinct than any player we ever heard. Her stare a to passages are deliv and with a very singular evenuess while herlegato runs are no 1 sa maskel for the reven flow and exact rendering

Her selections last evening were from (Login, Laset, Mendalsochu and Gots chalk, but we think that Chopin's style is better adapted to her genius. What she may be some after spen long the time offierartists have done none but a prophet an foreste

Quite a number of her friends from Forre Haute, where she formerly resided came to witness her debut they claim her but she rightfully belongs to Decitur. We see proud of her also of Mr. thus A. Eister her teacher who has no augerior west of the mountains

Of those from Terre Haute who volum teered to sing and play Miss Helen Me. tiregor Jeffers was of the number. This was not her first at poarance in public She is conceded everywhere to be a star Public column, whitever she sings

This is the first time Mrs. I say has song in Decatus although she has resided here for several your. We do not know her reason for being so secluded. More Than a Year Without Food.

The London News says "The female

anaconda in the Zoological Gardens was torn from her home in South America some time in 1876. She was carried across the ocean in a narrow box, which caused her great discomfort, and may possibly have impaired her digestion. In February, 1877, the anaconda was consigned to her English abode, but she refused to be comforted or to take anything to eat. The dainties which greatest charms for her, live birds and other animated trifles were, happily for them, exhibited in vain. She persevered in starving herself resolutely, not to may sullenly, and we do not learn that food was thrust upon her perforce. A few days ago she recovered the taste for living, and gratified her friends by slaying and swallowing an unfortunateduck. She may now do very well, for appetite comes as we as very well, for appetite comes as we a year might prove trying to most scrpentine constitutions. It would be interesting to know whether the anaconda's weight has varied at all during her unexampled performance. Taking Laughing Gas.

A friend of mine, says a corresponleut, wont, a few days back to have a tooth stopped. The dentist advised him that he had better have the tooth taken out and assured him that he would feel no pain if he took laughing gas. "But what is the effect of the gas?" asked my friend. "It simply makes you totally insensible, remarked the dentist; "you don't know anything that takes place? My friend submitted, but just provious to the gas being administered, he put his hand into his pocket and took out his money. "Oh, don't trouble about that now," said the deutist, thinking that he was going to be paid his fee. Not at all, remarked the patient; 'I was simply going to see how much I had before the gas took effect.

More Thus a Year Without Feed.

The London News says "The female anaconda in the Zoological Gardens was torn from her home in South America some time in 1876. She was carried across the ocean in a narrow box, which caused her great discomfort, and may possibly have impaired her digestion. In February, 1877, the anaconda was consigned to her English abode, but she refused to be comforted or to take anything to cat. The dainties which greatest charms for her, live birds and other animated trifles were, happily for them, exhibited in vain. She persevered in starving herself resolutely, not to say sullenly, and we do not learn that food was thrust upon her perforce - A few days ago she recovered the taste for living, and grat ified her friends by slaying and swallowing an unfortunateduck. She may now do very well, for appetite comes as we eat, but her prolonged fust of at least a year might prove trying to most serpen-tine constitutions. It would be interesting to know whether the anaconda's weight has varied at all during her unexampled performance. Taking Laughing Gas.

A friend of mine, says a correspondent, went, a few days back, to have a tooth stopped. The dentist advised him that he had better have the tooth taken out and assured him that he would feel no pain if he took laughing gas. "But what is the offect of the gas?" asked my friend. "It simply makes you totally insensible, ' remarked the dentist; "you don't know anything that takes place My friend submitted, but just previous to the gas being administered, he put his hand into his pocket and took out his money. 'Oh, don't trouble about that now," said the dentist, thinking that he was going to be paid his fee. Not at all, remarked the patient; was simply going to see how much I had before the gas took effect.

More Than a Year Without Food.

The London News says: "The female

anaconda in the Zoological Gardens was torn from her home in South America some time in 1876. She was carried across the ocean in a narrow box, which caused her great discomfort, and may possibly have impaired her digestion. In February, 1877, the anaconda was consigned to her English abode, but she refused to be comforted or to take anything to cat The dainties which greatest charms for her, live birds and other animated trifles, were, happily for them, exhibited in She persevered in starving her self resolutely, not to say sullenly, and we do not learn that food was thrust upon her perforce. A few days ago she recovered the taste for living, and gratified her friends by slaying and swallowing an unfortunate duck. She may now do very well, for appetite comes as we eat, but her prolonged fast of at least a year might prove trying to most serpen tine constitutions. It would be interesting to know whether the anaconda's weight has varied at all during her un exampled performance. Taking Laughing Gas.

A friend of mine, says a correspondent, went, a few days back, to have a tooth stopped. The dentist advised him that he had better have the tooth taken out, and assured him that he would feel no pain if he took laughing gas "But what is the effect of the gus?" asked my friend. "It simply makes you totally insensible, remarked the dentist; "you don't know anything that takes place." My friend submitted, but just previous to the gas being administered, he put his hand into his pocket and took out his money "Oh, don't trouble about that now," said the dentist, thinking that he was going to be paid his fee. Not at all," remarked the patient, "I was simply going to see how much I had before the gas took effect.

COUNTRY'S CANVAS COLOSSUS! SELLS BROTHERS anaconda in the Zoological Gardens was torn from her home in South America some time in 1876. She was carried across the ocean in a narrow box, which caused her great discomfort, and may possibly have impaired her digestion. In February, 1877, the anaconda was consigned to her English abode, but she refused to be comforted or to take anything to cat The dainties which greatest charms for her, live birds and other animated trifles, were, happily for them, exhibited in She persevered in starying her self resolutely, not to say sullenly, and we do not learn that food was thrust upon her perforce A few days ago she recovered the taste for living, and gratified her friends by slaying and swallow ing an unfortunate duck She may now do very well, for appetite comes as we eat, but her prolonged fast of at least a year might prove trying to most serpen tine constitutions. It would be interesting to know whether the anaconda's weight has varied at all during her un exampled performance. Teking Laughing Gas.

A friend of mine, says a correspondent, went, a few days back, to have a tooth stopped. The dentist advised him that he had better have the tooth taken out, and assured him that he would feel no pain if he took laughing gas "But what is the effect of the gus?" asked my friend. "It simply makes you totally insensible, remarked the dentist; "you don't know anything that takes place." My friend submitted, but just previous to the gas being administered, he put his hand into his pocket and took out his money "Oh, don't trouble about that now," said the dentist, thinking that he was going to be paid his fee. Not at all," remarked the patient, "I was simply going to see how much I had before the gas took effect.
